TELEGRAMS.

LORD SALISBURY.

LONDON, March 27th.
The Marquis of Salisbury's health has sufficiently improved to admit of his going to his country residence at Hatfield. He proposes being in Belfast on the 23rd of April.

BALFOUR'S PLATFORM.

Mr. A. J. Balfour proposes visiting Ireland, and will be present at a great Unionist demonstration to be held at Belfast on the 4th of April.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

H.M.S. Caroline was at Swatow on the 27th inst.
The Earl and Countess of Jersey were treated to a great carriage at Port Darwin.

The German gunboat Itz arrived at Shanghai on the 23rd inst. from Chienmuipo.

HARMSTON'S Circus was to leave Hio for Manila about the 21st inst., playing en route at Pampanga for a few days.

By latest advices from the North, H.M.S. Porpoise was at Hankow, the Constant at Kluang, and the Rattler at Wuhu.

ACCORDING to telegrams received in Shanghai, it was expected that the Newchwang river would be open for traffic at the end of last week.

The furniture sale advertised by Messrs. A. E. Steele & Co. at 21, Bellvue Terrace on the 26th inst. has been postponed until Tuesday, April 4th. See advertisement.

The Mercury says that the three companies (Ewo, Talook, and Chioa Merchants) were sending two steamers each to Newchwang on the 26th inst. from Shanghai.

We are informed by the agents (Messrs. Dodwell, Carill & Co.) that the "Shire" Line steamer Denkighire left Singapore for this port on the 25th inst., and is due on or about the 1st prox.

TOM TAYLOR'S "The Ticket-of-Leave-Man" will be produced at the Theatre Royal, City Hall, to-night. Miss Ethel Arden as May Edwards and Miss Marie Brian as Sam Willoughby ought to pick 'em.

A TELEGRAM has been received from Messrs. J. Whitall & Co. London, announcing that the meeting of shareholders of the New Inland Mines, Limited, has been adjourned until May 15th. Full particulars are promised by mail.

The Shanghai Amateur Dramatic Club, on the occasion of its hundredth performance last Wednesday (22nd inst.) spread itself with brilliant clat on a burlesque entitled "The Tale of Tell re-told"; or, William and Robin were two pretty men.

In future the steamers of the North German Lloyd will call at Naples as well as at Genoa. This is an alteration which will give great satisfaction to passengers by this popular line, and will further facilitate an early delivery of the homeward mails.

QUITE a crowd of padres came over from Macao by the Hongkong yesterday in order to meet Bishop Medeiros, who was a passenger from Timor by the steamer Cathartus. "My Sweetheart" was a great success at the Theatre Royal, City Hall.

The Diario de Manila last week published an account, "received from the Batanes Islands by latest boat," of a fearful typhoon which caused incalculable loss in those parts on the 9th and 10th October last—at the time when the Bokhara was wrecked in the Formosa Channel.

The small Portuguese steamer Dilly, built some years ago by the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Co. for the Macao Government, returned from Timor last night in tow of the E. & A. Co.'s steamer Cathartus. The Dilly goes into dock for a thorough overhaul and necessary repairs.

No gold is yet reported to have been saved from the wreck of the ill-fated P. & O. steamer Bokhara; and yet an Amoy correspondent says that gold coins have been conspicuously plentiful in this port since the recent visit of the sailing ship Sampan. This, of course, may only be a coincidence; but people will talk.

The Diario says that, "on the staff of the Imperial, as officer de navio, in the Conde Carl Dyrast, of the Royal Family of England, travelling incognito with his secretary, the Honorable Sir Frank Austley Cooper." As a matter of fact, Earl Dyrast and Mr. Austley Cooper were passengers on the Esmeralda.

The Band of the 1st Shropshire Light Infantry will play the following programme at the Officers' Mess, Murray Barracks, this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock:—
Overture, "Rosemary"; Schubert.
Selection, "Cavalleria Rustica"; Mascagni.
Valse, "Clair de Lune"; Debussy.
Selection, "Clair de Lune"; Debussy.
Gavotte, "La Cigale"; Bizet.

IN H. B. M. Supreme Court, Shanghai, on the 24th inst., Mr. Ernest Major, who leaves for England shortly, gave evidence de bene esse in a suit now pending in which Messrs. Major Brothers & Co. are plaintiffs and Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. are defendants, "about some land," says the Mercury. Mr. H. B. Wilkinson appeared for plaintiffs and Mr. J. C. Hanson for defendants. The proceedings, being in chambers, were not published.

YESTERDAY was the natal day of Miss Ethel Arden, the popular and accomplished leading lady of the London Lyric Company, at present performing in the colony, and the managing director, Mr. J. Saville Smith, took the opportunity of showing his appreciation of Miss Arden's talents by presenting her with a very handsome gold bracelet of Chinese design and manufacture—a souvenir which will doubtless be highly appreciated. We cordially wish this career actress "many happy returns."

THE Shanghai river sits up in an unaccountable manner in places sometimes, and on the 24th inst. (according to the Daily News) while the Sachsen was hauling off to the buoy from the China Merchants' lower wharf, those on board were surprised to find that the vessel, which was drawing less than twenty feet, had touched bottom. The Sachsen remained in this position for some time, but eventually floated and was towed to her buoy without having sustained any damage.

THE E. & A. Co.'s steamer Cathartus, Capt. Neil Shannon, which arrived from Sydney last night, called in at Dilly (Timor) en route, to bring along Dr. Medeiros, Bishop of Macao, who for some time past has been dispensing salvation wholesale to the hapless heathens of that benighted island. His lordship of Macao, who is a most enthusiastic and energetic worker, went to Timor on a special mission—one of the elect had gone astray, alas! alack, well-day, and the unsavoury business had to be smoothed over somehow—and no doubt Dr. Medeiros arranged everything to his own satisfaction before leaving. But we sadly fear his lordship will (if such a thing were possible) indulge in a little profanity when he arrives in fair Macao. The Bishop of Macao, from time immemorial, has had what amounted to practical control of the revenues of that blessed corporation of the revenues of St. Joseph's College, and it is sufficiently notorious that the present incumbent of the office has always had a keen eye to business and the main chance. The Green Island Cement Co. may find that out to their cost one of these fine days. However, Dr. de Medeiros regimes in regard to matters financial has for some time past been freely criticised by our Macao correspondents in these columns, and as a result, so we are credibly informed, orders have been received from Lisbon to replace the Bishop as Chairman of the Finance Committee by the Colonial Secretary. And it is much better so. A Bishop's business is to look after the salvation of souls, not the saving of dollars.

THE Daily Press is nothing if not dishonest. When the last Manila mail came in, as usual we published sundry small items of Philippine news, which were (also as usual) religiously reproduced later by our morning contemporary as original. The same old game!

In a glove contest at the Olympic Club, New Orleans on March 24, for a $10,000 purse and a side bet of $1,000, Ed. Smith, of Denver, "knocked out" Joe Goddard, of Australia, in the eighteenth round, after fighting one hour and ten minutes. Goddard, on whom odds of 5 to 1 were freely laid, had the better of the encounter throughout, but was eventually sent to sleep temporarily by a swing on the jaw. That settles Mr. Goddard's pretensions to championship form.

THE old "ninety-day" gunboat Lulu, which, after being converted into a sailing vessel and employed on the China coast as a merchant vessel, was finally turned into a pontoon for the Old Ningpo Wharf, sank some time ago, and is now being blown up by the Customs divers. Messrs. Paine and Wilson were at work on the wreck on the 20th inst. for this purpose, but could only use small charges of dynamite, owing to the proximity of vessels and houses. During one of the explosions, says a Shanghai contemporary, the water was thrown up to a height of about fifty feet.

AS will be seen from an advertisement which appears elsewhere Mr. Benjamin Franklin Taylor is the latest "Richmond" in the field to cater for the creature comforts of the men of the mercantile marine and the floating public generally. Mr. Taylor has had his premises thoroughly overhauled and the last of the rooms are now being palatial and decorated. The house affords accommodation for twelve boarders and the genial host claims that he almost makes the "Western" one of the best conducted houses in the colony. There are two bars, a piano, etc., and all the other accessories of a modern hotel.

ON Sunday evening last a smart school-boy in a Chinese family in Tientsin was repeating his lesson, ready for next day's visit to the Government hall of learning in Hollywood Road. The boy's uncle, a surgeon, was visiting at the time, and the youth showed his mastery of the Flowery Language by twisting a few syllables slightly so as to wound Nanny's professional pride—something after the style of "I do not like thee, Doctor Fell." Uncle got angry, and did the squarer twist to such an extent that the boy was insensible for some time after the avuncular admonition. The frate surgeon was brought before Capt. Hastings this morning at the Magistrate's and fined $10.

THE Celestials are certainly advancing in Western ways. At the Police Court to-day Capt. Hastings, assistant magistrate, had to settle a family disturbance of the orthodox Whitechapel type. Mr. Lau Yu, about two weeks ago, discovered that his wife Lum Ng had been leading money to a neighbour without reference to her lord and master. Affectionate Yu thereupon remonstrated with a cuss on his head, and she has been in the hospital ever since. This morning she appeared before the magistrate, with bandages on her head and tears in her eyes, and begged forgiveness of her lord and his Worship for the trouble she had caused. All the same, Yu went to gaol for "30 days hard."

THE Earl of Jersey, ex-Governor of New South Wales, arrived here last night from Sydney by the Eastern and Australian Co's steamship Cathartus. His lordship, who is accompanied by Lady Jersey and family, is staying at the Hongkong Hotel and will proceed to England via America by an early steamer. Lord Jersey was Governor of New South Wales for only two years out of a five years' term and resigned his appointment owing to the exigencies of private affairs. During their stay in Sydney both the Earl and Countess of Jersey made the farewell banquet popular with all classes, and the farewell banquet given last night in the Town Hall on February 27th was fairly taken as an indication of the respect and esteem in which they were universally held. In his younger days Lord Jersey was a well-known athlete, and as President of the London Athletic Club held a most prominent position in the world of sport. And he is still a good old "sport."

TWO STEAMERS ASHORE.
This morning a telegram was received from Messrs. Heron & Co., Holloway, by Messrs. Shearer & Co. and circulated, as follows:—
Shearer & Co. have received a telegram from the Haliphong and Kyrie are ashore on South Beach, Mainan Strait.

The Haliphong left Hongkong for Tonkin on Friday afternoon (24th inst.) and would therefore be in the ordinary course reach the Straits by Monday morning early. Her owners, the Messageries Maritimes Co., maintain their own insurance fund. The Kyrie, chartered by the Charbonnages Co. to carry coal from Hongkong to Hongkong, was on the way to this port, presumably with a full cargo. She is owned and insured entirely in Norway, and the coal is insured locally.

Probably both accidents are due to the thick hazy weather which has prevailed lately. It is quite possible that the two vessels may be floated off without trouble.

Later in the day a telegram was received in Hongkong stating that a French gunboat had been sent out from Hongkong to assist the M. M. steamer, M. de Champagne, agent of the Messageries Maritimes, has wired for further particulars.

"MY SWEETHEART" AT THE CITY HALL.

The London Lyric Company made their second appearance in the above named "sparkling musical comedy" at the Theatre Royal, City Hall, last night, to a very fair audience, and considering the disadvantages under which they laboured by comparison (and theatre-goers will make comparisons, somehow) with the company that first introduced this kick to the stage, the measure of success they achieved, the former company "stared" with this particular piece and had for his shining light, bright and limpid little Grace Plaided, and (Hongkong's still lamented) Mr. Charles Harding. Needless to remark there are no Miss Plaideds nor Charlie Hardings in the ranks of the Lyric, but notwithstanding that fact, Miss Marie Brian deserves the highest praise for her clever impersonation of Yvonne, and to her, Miss Ethel Arden and Mr. Verner are due the credit of redeeming the piece from absolute failure. Of course, the management knows its own business best, but after having seen Mr. D. C. Smith's Dudley Harcourt upon a former occasion, we are bound to say that had he been cast for that character last evening, the change would have materially altered the features of the performance.

"My Sweetheart" is essentially a "one part" play, and unless an unlimited amount of business is introduced it is as unfinished as a funeral without a corpse. And that is where the Lyric are not strong. There is no absolute "star" in the show.

Miss Marie Brian's conception of Yvonne evinced a deal of careful study and to her credit be it said, she not only made the most of every possible point, but tried to imbue the local Tony Factor of Mr. Cecil Burt with a little life and animation. It must be confessed that a pretty girl to make love to a man who smiles when he should sigh, and vice versa. But Miss Brian is a talented actress, her play was delightful, and her dancing especially clever. Mr. Cecil Burt as Tony looked very pretty, and there praise must end. Fancy a man smiling when he had 'tully' his heart! That's what Mr. Burt did. Miss Ethel Arden's impersonation of Mrs. Platter was a clever and conscientious one—and the reception which the talented lady met with at the hands of the audience must have been somewhat on a very unthankful and trying part. Mr. Thomas Verner as Joe Shallow, the "Old Sport," made an excellent hit, and so did Mr. Stewart in the colorful character of Dr. Hyer. Messrs. J. H. Nunn and Butlett ambled through the piece in the guise of Harold Barlett and Arthur Hattall respectively, the former with credit and the latter without anything in particular. The Dudley Harcourt of Edwin Ferguson was not the party that we used to know, despite the fact that Mr. Ferguson exerted every effort to wrestle with the idiosyncrasies of the nincompoopish Dudley. He hardly knew how Mrs. J. B. Brian's Mrs. Hattall was good enough for anything, and one of the best played characters in the piece.

On the whole, if applause be any criterion as to the worth of an entertainment, the "My Sweetheart" by the Lyric must, generally speaking, be classed as a success. To-night they will appear in Tom Taylor's famous drama "The Ticket of Leave Man."

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.
The Pacific Mail Co's steamship Para, Capt. W. Ward, which left San Francisco with the American mails of March 24th, arrived in harbour to-day. For the subjoined telegrams we are indebted to our San Francisco exchanges:—
J. W. Hobbs, of Hobbs & Co., G. W. Newman, of Newman & Co., and H. C. Wright, solicitor, have been committed for trial on charges of forgery and fraud in connection with the ruin of the Liberator Building Society.

The evidence showed that the society was defrauded through a series of years by false bills for supplies and manufactured lists of wages paid. The total frauds are supposed to exceed $2,000,000.

Cent. Lafferty, champion bantam weight of Scotland, has sailed on the Esirra to make a match with "Billy" Plummer, the 110 pound champion, in any club in America that will offer the largest purse.

George Buebar, the champion carman of England, called at the Sporting Life office to-day and stated that he would row Edward Hanlan on the Thames for $500 a side and for the Richard K. Fox rowing cup in April, allowing $100 for expenses, or he would row in America and accept $100 for expenses.

The home of General U.S. Grant, on Sixty-sixth street, Fifth Avenue, was bought to-day by Henry O. Havemyer, one of the sugar kings, whose residence adjoins the Grant place. The price is not stated, nor are the reasons known which induced Mrs. Grant to sell property which had become almost historic.

Signor Agnini, Social Deputy, in the Chamber to-day said the statements regarding the bank troubles compromised several Premiers and Cabinets and the honorable way for repudiation and change was through searching and impartial Parliamentary investigation. Ex-Premier Crispien and Radical supported Signor Agnini's motion. Amid much confusion Premier Giolitti repeated his former arguments for delay and Agnini's motion was rejected by a vote of 197 to 92.

Replying to congratulations and good wishes extended to him by the leaders of the French pilgrims to-day the Pope said: "I know that France desires to remain Catholic. For this purpose she must be free. Christian institutions must be allowed freedom to develop and parents must be allowed liberty to have their children educated at Catholic schools."

Converting with Cardinal Logue to-day the Pope said he approved Irish home rule, justice to Irish Catholics, the Pontiff said, would tend to strengthen England. The Pope eulogized Gladstone.

DUBLIN, February 23rd.
The financial agitation in Ireland on account of the dread among security-holders of the effect of home rule is increasing. Bank of Ireland stock to-day shows an additional fall of £5, and the stock of the Great Western Railway of Ireland shows a decline of £2 1/2 a share.

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 23rd.
Five hundred houses in Kadikoy were burned this evening and more than 3000 persons are homeless. The damages are estimated at 5,000,000 francs.

BERLIN, February 23rd.
During the discussion in the Reichstag on the estimates of the Board of Health, Dr. von Boettcher, Secretary of the Imperial Home Office, said that medical examination had shown that corpses, the earth being as a filter. The question of cremation, he added, was not within the scope of the Reichstag.

MADRID, February 23rd.
A strong force of the Civil Guard has been ordered to Alcoy, twenty-four miles northwest of Alicante, with instructions to repress vigorously any attempt that may be made by the anarchists to create a disturbance there.

The anarchists in the town have posted a number of placards inciting working-men to rise and proclaim a social revolution, but it is thought that even though the working-men were disposed to rebel against authority the prompt action of the Government will prevent any overt act.

TERRE HAUTE (Ind), February 23rd.
John L. Sullivan took occasion to-day to say: "While I am not able to state positively to present whether or not I shall ever appear in the ring again, there is nothing I will say positively in this regard, and that is that nothing in this world would give me greater pleasure than to meet Jim Corbett, the coward and king of liars, in a twelve-foot room, and then, and there I would earn those contemptible 110 lbs. has been telling about me down his throat."

"There is another bluffer that I will settle at our first meeting, and that is Joe Goddard. No matter where we meet, there will be a fight that the boys may see without buying admission tickets."

NEW YORK, February 24th.
In the United States District Court to-day judgment and execution for $44,292 were issued against George Gould and Russell Sage as bondsmen for the Pacific Mail in their petition for the limitation of liability as owners of the steamship City of Para. The claims have been computed at that amount.

The City of Para was aground near the Isle of New Providence in 1888 and was damaged severely. A good deal of the cargo was lost. Under an Act of Congress the owners got the vessel appraised, so their liability could be limited, and Gould and Sage filed a bond guaranteeing payment.

A rowing match was arranged this afternoon between Edward Hanlan of Toronto and Wallace Ross of this city. Articles were signed whereby Ross and Hanlan have agreed to row for the championship challenge cup and purse of $1000, distance five miles, with a turn.

The race will be for the five-mile single-scutt championship of America, the race to be rowed on Tuesday, May 30, 1893, at a place to be mutually agreed upon. The trophy shall go to the winner, with a purse of $2000, and the winner of the cup must be prepared to defend the same against all challenges according to the rules governing the same.

BARCELONA (Spain), February 25th.
An Englishman, Samuel P. Pastor, entered the office of Bonif Brothers, shot and killed Jose and severely wounded the other brother. He then attempted suicide, but was overpowered and bound. No cause is known.

The Cortes has approved the Government proposal to grant amnesty to all political prisoners. This will result in the liberation of the insurgents who were condemned to exile and imprisonment for having been engaged in the Oporto outbreak in January and February, 1891.

LONDON, March 1st.
The tide of Mr. Gladstone's popularity continues to swell. The bye-elections, with scarcely an exception, show substantial gains for the Government. The future of the week in Parliament was the breezy debate Thursday night upon the Welsh Church suspension bill. The occasion was marked by Lord Randolph Churchill's full recovery of his old form as a great parliamentary fighter and by a splendid oration in reply, delivered on short notice, by Mr. Gladstone.

The Tories had artfully put up Churchill at a late hour in the belief that the Grand Old Man would not be allowed by his medical and family advisers to remain after 10 o'clock, but when at 11.30 o'clock Lord Randolph stood down the house was electrified to see the aged Premier standing in his place, stout, erect and evidently full of fight. The speech which followed was a splendid example of the best style of parliamentary debating power, full of fire, pugnacious, scornful, sarcastic, denunciatory, passionate and masterful. The old man, as all could see, was thoroughly in his element. It was a pleasure to note the enjoyment with which he tore to tatters the alleged facts and arguments of the Tories who had preceded him in the debate.

As he warmed to his work, encouraged by the enthusiastic plaudits of his delighted followers, every sign of age seemed to vanish from his face. His eyes sparkled with youthful fire, his tall form away with every oratorical impulse and his sonorous voice filled the house and rose high above the angry interruptions of his Tory opponents.

Big Ben, high up in the great illuminated clock tower, had commenced to strike midnight when Gladstone resumed his seat. He remained for the division, in which he took part, smiled more than his full normal majority, and then drove home in a closed brougham.

Letters received from Cairo state that the situation there is much graver than the British official advice acknowledges. The feeling against English rule is extending, and the presence of British troops is all that prevents an outbreak.

While Riss Pascha, the new Premier, is not engaged in any of the plotting against Great Britain, he is such a thoroughly a theodist and bigoted Mohammedan that it is feared that a religious aspect of agitation may develop strongly in his nature. Heretofore Riss Pascha has not wavered in his allegiance to British authority in Egypt, and it is understood that Lord Cromer has confidence in him now, but the Egyptian situation is full of anxiety, and it will take all the skill of Lord Cromer to steer affairs to a successful result for British interests.

At the winter Hippodrome this afternoon, in the presence of 20,000 spectators, Terront, the French long-distance bicycle champion, easily defeated Corra. The distance, 1000 kilometres, or 621 miles, was accomplished in 41 hours, 58 minutes and 62 seconds. Corra covered only 590 kilometres. Terront established a record for remaining in the saddle on the track during the first twenty-five hours, dismounting on account of an accident to his pneumatic tire.

ST. PETERSBURG, February 26th.
In addition to the other misfortunes which have of late befallen Russia she is now called upon to struggle with a terrible epidemic of what is commonly called the "black death," which has recently appeared in the Caucasus. Thence it has spread with frightful rapidity all over Southern Russia. The number of deaths is increasing daily, and all measures to check the frightful calamity have so far proved useless.

Accordingly a special session has been called of the Ministry of the Interior, which, according to the Novoye Vremya, will endeavor, with the aid of the medical department of the Ministry of War, to invent some means of staying the progress of the dread disease.

Meanwhile the chief medical inspector of the Department of War has been dispatched to the scene of the plague to investigate as to the causes and to find some way of checking its ravages. Russia is certain to be in no condition to present to struggle with such an epidemic among her people.

It is hoped that a theory which has recently been propagated, that the disease is not so liable to spread in such extremely cold weather as now prevails in Northern Russia, is true, as it would be a terrible calamity; indeed, if the plague were to spread to this city and Moscow.

The exceptionally cold weather, said to have been the worst of the century in Russia, has caused unusual suffering among the badly housed and overcrowded masses of troops on the Polish frontier. Of course no official figures are given, but private letters to friends say that every village knows of cases of soldiers breeding to death, and that the whole army in Poland is more fit for the hospital than the field. All the same, new recruits are constantly being built and the population is unable to conceive what it all means if not war. Yet this is what experts seem particularly to agree that it does not mean.

While a pleasant wedding party was crossing the Danube yesterday near Wickenburg the ice broke and two sleds with ten persons were swept under water and all were drowned.

ROME, February 26th.
The Pope is much better of his cold, and this morning said mass in the private chapel. Some time ago he received Count Reventen's Salazar, the Austrian Ambassador, who presented him a letter of congratulation from Emperor Franz Joseph and several gifts. This afternoon the Pope received the Scottish pilgrims. Cardinal Vaughan held a large reception at English College this evening.

NEWS BY THE AUSTRALIAN MAIL.
The Eastern and Australian Co's steamship Cathartus, Capt. N. Shannon, from Sydney, March, via ports of call, arrived in harbour last night. We take the following telegrams from our Colonial exchanges:—

LONDON, February 23rd.
The presents to Pope Leo XIII. on the celebration of the jubilee of his elevation to the papacy, amount in value to seven million francs (about £280,000).

The French Chamber of Deputies has passed the bill recently introduced by the Government giving a subsidy to an exclusively French company for laying a cable between New Caledonia and Queensland.

Shares in the Bank of Ireland have further fallen to the extent of £4 2s.

[The Bank of Ireland is a joint-stock bank, established in 1783, with a capital of three millions paid up, having a reserve of £1,000,000, and the £100 shares stood in October last at £310. The last dividend was 11s per cent.]

The Pope has expressed his approval of the Home Rule Bill, which, he says, "gives justice to my good Irish, while tending to strengthen England's power."

The Trust and Agency Company of Australasia has decided to increase its capital to half a million sterling, in 25,000 preference and 25,000 ordinary shares, at 30s premium, half being issued immediately.

A body of Arab slaves has made a raid on Northern Nyassa, in Central Africa. The slaves attacked the natives of a village in an ambush. They butchered the male portion of the village and captured two women.

On being pursued by a force of Europeans the Arabs speared their captives and left them for dead.

AUCKLAND, February 26th.
News from Tonga reports the death of King George, on 18th February, after a few days' illness. It is expected that his successor will be Prince Tanuafanua.

[The Tonga group of islands used to be each governed by independent chiefs, but in 1845 they were brought under the rule of one chief, called King George, an able ruler and a zealous preacher of the Gospel. In 1862 he gave the islands a constitution, and summoned a Parliament of 40 members. The successor of the late King George is his grandson, Prince Tanuafanua.]

Owing to the second flood in Brisbane, and to Sir James F. Garrick's telegram as to the extent of the losses thereby, the London Committee of the Queensland Floods Relief Fund has made an appeal to the public for help. The Marquis of Ripon has subscribed £20.

A further remittance of £1000 has been sent by cablegram to Brisbane.

The Irish National League in America has issued a manifesto concerning the Home Rule Bill, which it passed into law. It says, will prove ruinous to Ireland. The financial proposals under the bill are regarded as clever juggling. A sovereign Parliament will alone suffice for the needs of Ireland.

The United States Senate has virtually left the decision of the question of the Hawaiian Treaty to the new Congress.

Intelligence has reached Brussels from the Congo Free State to the effect that Lieutenant Dhanis, a Belgian officer in command of the Belgian Congo force operating against the hostile Arab tribes, has had a conflict with the enemy on the Komani. Lieutenant Dhanis completely defeated the Arabs, capturing 500 prisoners, including five chiefs. He also seized 600 rifles.

[The Times published the following telegram recently from its Brussels correspondent:— "Important news has just been received from the Congo. Lieutenant Dhanis, in command of the camp at Lusambo, which is intended to protect the south-west territories of the Free State against the incursions of the Arab tribes, and particularly of the Marabout, has had upon an expedition against the latter. It will be remembered that Mohamud, the rival of Tippu Tib and ally of Rumlali of Ujiji, after denying the commercial agents of the Company of the Upper Congo all access to the countries over which he rules, ordered the massacre of Hodierne and his companions between Beni Kamba and Beni Riba. Lieutenant Dhanis, after having established and fortified some advanced posts on the Lemani above Beni Kamba, declared war upon him through L'Imbo, the great negro chief of the region, prince of the Free State."

News has been received from the Congo, stating that the Belgian Expedition of Captain Jacques and M. Delecommene, concerning the safety of which grave fears were entertained, are safe at Tanganyika. They had a hot engagement with the Arabs at Vumbaya. The Belgian Resident and his assistant were killed. The Arabs were routed.

The Radical section of the German Reichstag opposes the proposed German mail service to New Guinea, on the ground that it makes the contracting company dependent on the Empire. Herr Bamberger, the Postmaster-General, advocated subsidised lines of steamers, by which dependence upon England would be obviated.

The Times, in commenting on the result of the separation from the Central Queensland Separation League which waited upon the Secretary of State for the Colonies, says that the advocates of separation have made out a strong case. The North would be more likely to prosper if relieved of laws made to meet the conditions peculiar to the South. The same argument applies to the Northern portions of Western Australia and South Australia, which, it says, will probably start an agitation similar to that entered upon in Queensland.

The Standard charges the Opposition in the House of Commons with mismanagement and carelessness, and reproaches it for its wasted opportunities and ill-conceived tactics in allowing the Government to gain ground in the House and in the country.

Mr. Fred Henderson, member of the London County Council for Clapham, has been committed for trial upon a charge of having stolen the sum of £5 from a woman.

Lieutenant Harvey, R.A., the newly-appointed commander of the defenses at Albany, King George's Sound, will leave England in the steamer Australia on March 30.

February 25th.
In the House of Commons last night Sir William Harcourt introduced the Liquor Trade Local Control Bill, giving to the ratepayers an extension of local option. The measure endows a two-thirds majority of ratepayers in any district with an absolute power to veto the issue of new licenses. It also gives a bare majority the power to enforce the Sunday closing of hotels.

The bill will not be operative for three years, except as regards the provision relating to Sunday closing, which will come into operation immediately the bill becomes law. No compensation is to be granted in cases where houses are closed.

The bill was read the first time.
The Unionist press pronounces the bill crude. The measure does not apply to Ireland. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, in submitting the Navy Estimates to Parliament, stated that good progress was being made with the new Imperial naval works at Garden Island, Sydney Harbour.

When presiding at the Clare Assizes, in Ireland, Mr. Justice O'Brien referred to the unsettled state of affairs in Ireland. He asserted that under present conditions there was no security for life and property in County Clare.

The Queen will open the Imperial Institute on May 17th in full state.
Mrs. E. M. Miller, the Australian lady who presented a pair of bells to the Imperial Institute, has received from Her Majesty the Queen a Jubilee medal in recognition of the gift.

Le Zonghi, the Paris newspaper, asserts that France has annexed Kerguelen's Land.
[Kerguelen's Land or Island, also named by Captain Cook "the Land of Desolation," is an island in the Southern Indian Ocean, about midway between Australia and South Africa. It is about 85 miles long by 79 broad, and has a superficial area of 2050 square miles. The scenery is generally magnificent, but the surface is rugged, and the soil and climate are inhospitable.]

It was discovered on February 13th, 1772, by M. Kerguelen, a French navigator, and visited afterwards by Cook and Ross.

In bidding farewell to the party of English pilgrims, who, introduced by the Duke of Norfolk, have attended the celebration of the Pope's Episcopal Jubilee, Lord XIII. said that he hoped that England would soon be Catholic again.

It is rumoured that the appointment of Agent-General for the colony is a certainty for Sir Graham Berry.

SYDNEY, March 8th.

A comparative statement of the consolidated revenue of the colony shows a decrease of £40,000 for the month of February.

It is officially announced that Colonel Hutton has been appointed commandant of the military forces of the colony.

Disastrous floods have occurred at Bowral, seven inches of rain falling in four hours. The gawwoks are inundated and the town is in darkness. The flood is the highest ever known in the district and it is still raining.

BRISBANE, March 8th.

A terrific hurricane occurred at Canterbury on Friday last, destroying the whole township. A tremendous storm, cyclonic in character, has occurred at Windsor, doing great damage.

It is now definitely announced that Sir Samuel Griffiths will take his seat as Chief Justice on the 15th inst.

PERTH (W. A.) March 8th.

A large brewery in course of erection at Fremantle has collapsed, one man being killed and four others seriously injured by the falling debris.

A telegram received from Onslow states that Captain Biddies has arrived there with news of the occurrence of a terrific hurricane in Exmouth Gulf. Fifty pearling boats are reported to be missing.

Mr. McKenzie, late Inspector of Railways and Telegraphs in Victoria, has submitted a scheme for lighting the streets of Perth with electricity.

LONDON, March 8th.

Russia threatens to interfere in the management of the internal affairs of Bulgaria in the event of Prince Ferdinand persisting in his proposal to alter the constitution of the country in order to comply with the conditions attending his projected marriage with an Austrian princess, viz., that children born of the union should be educated in the Roman Catholic faith.

The death is announced of the Sultan of Zanzibar, aged 34, from dropsy.

The excitement aroused by the proposed granting of Home Rule to Ireland is on the increase.

Arrangements are being made for the holding of a mass meeting of Irish Unionists at the Albert Hall, on the 29th April, to enter a vigorous and earnest protest against the passing of the Irish Home Rule Bill. The attendance is expected to reach ten thousand, and is intended as a practical and visible demonstration to the people of England of the divided state of purely Irish public opinion regarding the measure.

The Daily News, commenting on the proposed demonstration, points to the fact that the second reading of the measure is now before the House of Commons, and asserts that the Bill will be passed before Easter, in spite of objections raised by the Conservatives and Unionists.

The Nonconformist Association in England has issued an appeal strongly condemning the proposed legislation, and denouncing the attitude of the Gladstone Government as an attempted betrayal of the trust reposed in it by the Protestants of the United Kingdom.

An immense anti-Home Rule meeting was held in Dublin on Monday, presided over by the Protestant Archbishop of the city, Lord Plunkett. Many prominent Presbyterian and Methodist ministers also appeared on the platform. Prayers were offered up beseeching divine assistance in preventing the passing of a measure which the petitioners believed to be pregnant with evil consequences.

It is stated that half the taxable value of the town of Sandgate, in Kent, has been destroyed by the recent great subsidence of land into the sea.

Terrible floods have occurred in many parts of Hungary through the sudden overflowing of the River Danube.

Further disastrous storms have occurred in the Transvaal, and it is estimated that over one hundred thousand pounds worth of property has been destroyed. Many mines are flooded and houses swept away.

A Belgian expedition reports the discovery of a navigable waterway connecting the Congo with Lake Tanganyika, well adapted for purposes of commerce.

Elaborate preparations are being made to celebrate the silver wedding of the King and Queen of Italy. The German Emperor is expected to attend.

Lord Howard de Walden has sued for divorce on the ground of adultery, there being two co-respondents. Lady de Walden has also petitioned for divorce, making counter charges of adultery and desertion. The evidence was highly sensational. The Court found that both the petitioners were guilty of the alleged misconduct.

The unsettled state of the labour market throughout the world is leading to the formation of powerful defensive combinations among employers. Great free labour federations are in course of formation at Bristol and Hull and other centres.

The Queensland Floods Relief Fund in London amounts to £7,000. Subscriptions are still coming in.

(“M. C. DAILY NEWS” CORRESPONDENT.)
March 21st.

Now that winter seems to be gone, though we sometimes get snow in April, it is difficult to recall the dreary days of January and February, and we leave the enjoyment of Arctic pleasures to the endurance of Dr. Nansen and his courageous followers. The season now is very agreeable and in a few weeks the fruit blossoms will be at their best. Newchwang is some days from opening and is presumably yet in the full tide of its historic and other gaieties of which we often read in your issues.

Large numbers of Chinese are leaving Shanghai for Manchuria owing to severe agricultural depression, and no less than about 2,500 souls avail of the small steamer Kowang and Peiping to travel to Port Arthur a few days ago. The journey, of course, is only some 60 miles, but for good solid overcrowding this would be difficult to beat.

It is stated that we are soon to see a steam launch at work in the harbour and adjacent waters; the desirability of this is often very manifest when our local breeches hand and delay cargo-boat and other traffic from no other cause than the absence of steam assistance. As it is rumoured that the launch is of fair size we may be able to emulate the “Other Brighton” and offer an hour or two of agony in the shape of short cruises to the Bitch and Lighthouse and so on.

The Newman property fails to secure a purchaser but as matrimony is claiming the young proprietress it is likely that the hotel will, under the guidance and advice of the surviving trustees, pass into other management this summer, and with its already numerous engagements, a good season is anticipated.

A football match under Association rules took place on Saturday between the School and Settlement, the latter having the effective services of two marine engineers. The game resulted in a draw, neither side scoring. Some of the Settlement team appeared to possess a strong yearning to play the Rugby game and the inevitable cry of “hands” was often palpably justified.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

MELBOURNE, March 8th.
Parliament was formally prorogued on Friday by the Acting Governor, Chief Justice Madden. There was an imposing ceremony.

SCOTT'S Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites acts both as food and medicine. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food that builds up the wasted body. Read the following:—“Scott's Emulsion is in my opinion an excellent and valuable compound. I have given it to consumptive patients and have been delighted with the results obtained. It is pleasant to the taste and can be borne by the most sensitive stomach.”—E. A. RODWAY, M.D., Butter-Knowledge, Darlington. Any Chemist can supply it. A. S. Watson & Co.
